Message from the Manse

March 2024

Dear Friends

Spring is one of my favourite times of year. I love the fact that you can see things 'springing' into life. The plants that looked dead, suddenly send out new shoots, and the trees that looked like nothing would happen have buds. Even the birds sound louder and more active, and they prepare to have chicks. In the manse garden we have a pond, and already the frogs have started the cacophony of nighttime noise, not dissimilar to the 1984 Paul McCartney song the Frog Chorus.

This week I was at Woking Crematorium, sadly I do seem to spend a lot of time at these sorts of places, but the grounds were covered in snow drops. Not just 1 variety but a whole mix. In other places daffodils have made an appearance, and I have seen Rhododendrons in bloom (keep an eye out for the old Notcutts Nursey next to Bagshot Waitrose – stunning).

As someone who enjoys the garden, it is also the time when things seem to grow where we don't want them, and the list of 'jobs' seems endless! All those leaves you had cleared, seem to be back, and the bits you cleared in autumn must have jumped out of the compost heap. There is a joy though in spending that time in nature, especially for me, with the resident Robin following every move.

So, this spring, take time to pause, and to notice the world around, take time to listen to the sounds of the world, and take time to reflect on God's amazing creation.

Signs of new life are not just evident in nature; they are all around. We see the signs in our church and in our congregation. A huge welcome to all you who are worshipping with us and have become a part of the High Cross Church family. It is wonderful to be apart of such a great place. If you have joined us and would like to consider becoming a member, please do talk to me. So that we get to know each other better, the plan is to have a 'name badge Sunday' each month.

HIGH CROSS CHURCH
FOR GOD | FOR WORSHIP | FOR YOU

So keep an eye open for signs of new life in nature, at High Cross and in life. As the final verse of a very well known hymn says:

'He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.'

HIGH CROSS CHURCH
FOR GOD | FOR WORSHIP | FOR YOU

We were sad to hear of the death of Cynthia Walker whom many of us will remember. We send our love and sympathy to her daughter Rosella and all the family.

It is good to hear that Valda Hudson is home following a long spell in hospital and we send her our love and best wishes.

We send our love and prayers to all in our Church family who are unwell.

We said goodbye to Debbie at the end of February, we thank her for all her hard work in the office and wish her all the best in her new job.

It was lovely to hear that Louise Mason got engaged to Bruce at Christmas we send our love and congratulations.

“Lord God, thank you that your mercies are new every morning.

Thank you that we can claim this promise as we begin a new month.

We leave behind the trials and troubles of the previous month and step into this new month with our eyes fixed on you. Help us to glorify and honour you with this fresh start.”

Amen.

Love from Gillian

PRAYING FOR EACH OTHER

As a church family we have many opportunities to pray for those in need, during our personal prayers, the prayer breakfast, as we attend groups/ meetings, Facebook prayer requests, prayer lists on the Sunday notices and as we join in worship.

Sometimes there is a need for urgent prayer and the quickest way to answer that need is with a group of people I can email with the urgent prayer request.

If you would like to be part of that group please email me:

Thank you,
Gillian

An Evening of Music and Readings

Saturday 25th May 7.30 - 9.30pm

We are planning an evening of music and readings to be given by members and adherents of High Cross

Come and share your talents and enjoy listening to your friends
Do not hide your talents for as the Bible says

"No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:15-16).

Do let either John Wood, Martin Riddy or David Markby know by 31st March, if you would like to offer a contribution.

There will be a retiring collection in aid of High Cross Music to help fund a support frame for the Bechstein Piano kindly donated by Peter Beaven

Hi Everyone

On Jan 2nd I set myself a challenge to 'virtually' walk from home in Camberley Surrey to Land's End, Cornwall (264miles) and then continue on to John O'Groats (874miles). I wanted to complete this by my birthday on Oct 4th which gives me a total of 277 days to complete 1,138 miles, circa 4 miles every single day, eeeek!

In January I walked 177 miles and so far up to today (Feb15th) I have walked a further 110 miles, an average of 6.3miles every day for the last 45 days. At the time of writing I'm just outside of Dudley, a 3rd of the way to John O'Groats, so I think I'm doing great and at this pace I should complete the 1,138miles in early August, a whole 2 months earlier than my target.

This is only GPS logged activity so does NOT include general steps I make to the biscuit tin or the little room at home etc. I have to consciously and physically walk as an activity which, when working from home, is hard to do.

If I manage to complete this in advance of my target I am hoping to complete the round trip by walking from John O'Groats back to home (circa 650miles) by 31st December, a grand total of 1,788 miles of activity walking in 2024. A tough but I hope achievable target.

As there is no online virtual 'custom' routes, my journey from Home to Lands End will be in the form of 'walking the Pennine Way' which is 268miles, only slightly longer than home to Lands End and I'll be doing that after the LEJOG leg. The extra return leg I haven't decided upon yet but will probably be the SouthWest Coast path between Minehead and Poole Harbour (630miles). The total math adds up to within 2miles!

To keep motivation levels high I am hoping to raise money for an extremely worthwhile local charity:

The-Zone, a local charity in Farnborough, runs activities for local families with autistic/neurodivergent children.

They run monthly Saturday Zone and Teen Zone sessions during term time and Wednesday Fun Zone sessions in the school holidays. The families enjoy meeting others and playing with games consoles, laptops, toys, crafts and, when it is dry, go-karts, bouncy castles and outdoor fun. They also organise trips out for the families such as bowling, donutting, laser run, soft play, farm etc. It is often difficult for the families to get their children out and joining in with 'mainstream' activities. Since restarting activities following the pandemic, the sessions have been needed more than ever. Families come along, get support, connect with others and feel relaxed and accepted with their children joining in and having fun.

Donations of ANY amount will keep me on my toes (literally) and will make a difference to these local families.

Thanking you in advance.

The Life of Glenys Clark

Glenys was born into a Christian family and kept her faith throughout her long life. She followed the examples of her father and elder brother, and qualified as a medical doctor in 1958, at the University of Bristol. After qualification, she worked in hospitals in Bristol, Liverpool, Exeter and Cambridge, where she met her future husband, David. Before they married in 1962, she acquired post-graduate diplomas in Obstetrics and Gynaecology, and in Tropical Medicine and Hygiene, then spent her first married year in theological studies at what was then London Bible College. In 1965-66 she accompanied David to spend a year in a bush village in the Niger Delta, together with their baby daughter, who was 18-months old when they went there. That proved a very interesting, challenging and formative year for all of them, and Glenys was from time to time able to help local neighbours with basic medical issues. The family returned to England a few months before the Nigerian civil war broke out, and swept through the area where they had lived.

In 1972 when David began work with the United Bible Societies, the family, now with three daughters, were stationed in Bangkok, Thailand, where Glenys was not allowed to practise medicine officially, but was able to assist some Catholic nuns giving casual medical help in neglected and impoverished slum areas. She also took an interest in the National Museum, and became a qualified guide there for visitors who needed tours in English. She never resented being unable to pursue a medical career, but always gave priority to being a wife and mother.

In 1976, David was transferred to work in Papua New Guinea, where the family lived in the capital, Port Moresby on the south coast. Glenys was allowed to work there in the local hospital, which she did part-time at hours which did not clash with the children's school transport needs. Glenys also got involved with Christian telephone counselling, and marking Bible correspondence courses, and became the treasurer of the local Christian Medical Association. She also functioned as an "agony aunt" in a local newspaper. The hardest part of life in Moresby was that there was no secondary schooling available with a UK curriculum, so each of our daughters had to go to boarding school in England when they reached the age of 11, which was gut-wrenching for the whole family.

In 1982, David was moved to Bangalore (as it was then known) in India, and again Glenys was not allowed to do paid medical work. However, she was able to do voluntary work in a local Baptist Hospital, and helped to organise an international conference of Christian Physicians which happened to be held in Bangalore. She was also the honorary medical adviser to a nearby boarding school for girls from homes in poverty, an institution which met a serious need in that area. Glenys was also involved in Sunday School and Bible class teaching in the church they attended, and providing hygiene and first aid teaching to the wives of students in the United Theological College.

In 1986 David was moved back to Bangkok, where they joined the International Church, the most diverse congregation they ever worshipped with. It included folk from backgrounds as diverse as Salvation Army, Indonesian Lutheran and Armenian Orthodox. During their spell there, the pastors who served 2-year terms were in turn from Methodist, Presbyterian, Lutheran and Baptist backgrounds, so there was plenty of variety! Glenys quickly got involved with the church women's group, and eventually became its chairperson. She joined a Christian group who regularly visited the notorious Immigration Detention Centre, and was present there on one occasion when a desperate inmate set fire to himself. Other inmates extinguished the fire, and Glenys was able to provide first aid and have the man sent to hospital. There are many tribal groups in the north of Thailand, among whom needlework is a highly valued skill, and the International Church organised monthly sales of these beautiful goods, mainly to tourists. Payments could be made in Thai baht, US dollars, Australian dollars or Singapore dollars, but change could only be given in Thai baht, so there was often a lot of complex calculation to be done, but Glenys managed to leave that to others! She became the honorary medical adviser to a Christian home for rescued child prostitutes, many from tribal groups, who had been sold into prostitution by their own parents! In addition to these varied activities, she also hosted many house guests, and the flat where she and David lived became the venue for monthly prayer meetings for Bible translation work in minority languages.

In 1991, David was transferred to the Europe region, and the family settled in Bisley, where Glenys was soon helping at the Bisley Day Care Centre for the elderly. She also gave medical advice at the Citizen’s Advice Bureau in Woking, and gave telephone counselling with the Surrey Drug Care organisation, helping people with drug addictions, and later took on some administrative duties with them. Glenys had always been a competent pianist, and had played for hymns at the various churches we attended, but increasing generalised arthritis eventually forced her to give this up. From 2005 onwards, she had to have both hips and both knees replaced, and accepted this very stoically. Over the many years of David’s work with the Bible Societies, he was away from home very often, sometimes for several weeks, but Glenys never complained, and saw this as her contribution to the work. The Bible Societies had a rule that if an employee was working away from home for more than 60 days in a year, their spouse could accompany them on one trip in the following year. David never failed to meet this target, and as a result, together with unavoidable complicated itineraries and post-retirement holidays, Glenys had eventually visited over 70 different countries. In 2015 she was diagnosed with Alzheimer’s disease, which brought gradual mental decline, and meant moving to a care home, where she eventually died in December 2023. It was a sad end to a fruitful and well-lived life, but a release into the presence of the loving Lord whom she had so faithfully served.

The Celebration of the Chinese New Year

11th February 2024

The Abundant Life Group invited High Cross members to their celebrations.

Three ladies performed two dances, one with fans that made a loud crack noise as they opened them during the dance.

Lunch included a wide range of rice dishes and noodles as well as sweet and savoury snacks.

Thank you to everyone making it a lovely lunch.

“Thurst”

‘Thurst’ has been in existence for a few years now and is an informal meeting of a dozen or so men, mainly from High Cross.

We meet in the evening of the first Thursday of every month, usually in a pub in the Camberley area for a few beers, a bite to eat and a general chat.

In lockdown we met on Zoom, but are now back to meeting in person.

We chat about ‘anything and everything’ and generally ‘put the world to rights’.

Best wishes,
Geoff Line

High Cross Sunday Roast Club

This club is for High Cross members living on their own, particularly those missing a Sunday roast lunch now they find themselves living on their own!

The group meets in restaurants in and around Camberley.

They meet on the first Sunday of the month after the service, often at The Toby Carvery for a roast meal and company.

See Elsie for more details or to book a place.

January was a sorting and stocktaking time for the teams. We would welcome cleaning materials too.

Thank you for your kindness in helping our Surrey Heath community.

Love from Joan and Liz.

Crosstalk Deadline: Please make sure entries are in by the 15th of each month. Due to space, we sometimes have to leave articles until the following month. Please don't be offended if that happens!

A Request from the Crosstalk Team

As co-ordinator our church magazine, Crosstalk, a large part of my role is to 'nag' people to send us items to include each month. Most folk have been understanding and co-operative, producing some great and interesting issues.

Each month we have had a 'Spotlight' in which one of our members or friends have told us their story, leading them to High Cross.

Please can YOU help us? If you have not yet been in our Spotlight, please consider if you could be in our next one. We don't need to know your secrets, unless you would like us to! Please think about telling us the 'story' of your life before you came to this church. Include anything you would like to share with us. We are a caring, Christian group of people and will be interested in hearing more about you.

Just think about it. Length doesn't matter. Some of our Spotlights are short and some are very long! They are ALL valuable. Your stories contribute to OUR story as High Cross church. Please give it some thought and save the amount of 'nagging' I am doing.

Bless you all.
